Congratulations!

Your strong performance enrolling individuals and families in Marketplace coverage has earned you a spot in the HealthCare.gov Elite Circle of Champions for 2018.

You may have received materials recognizing you as a member of the HealthCare.gov Circle of Champions for helping individuals and families make at least 20 plan selections. You've now attained status in the Elite Circle of Champions because you have helped individuals and families make 100 or more plan selections during this year's Open Enrollment Period.

Thank you for the outstanding work you have done to help your clients weigh their coverage options and enroll in coverage that meets their needs.

Like the Circle of Champions, this Elite designation gives you exclusive access to a certificate and a badge for your website and email signature to recognize your hard work. We hope that these tools help you as you continue to enroll individuals and families through the remainder of Open Enrollment.

We continue to listen to you and make improvements to our resources in support of the work you do. For example, you suggested making it easier for consumers to connect with you. In response, this year it's easier for consumers to find you using our "Find Local Help" tool and for you to be listed in all states where you hold a valid health insurance license. Additionally, our new "Help on Demand" tool makes it possible for consumers to connect with you directly from HealthCare.gov. Finally, we continue to improve our training platform to make it easier for agents and brokers to obtain training and to continue growing their business.

Remember, this year's Open Enrollment Period ends on December 15, 2017 for enrollment into a 2018 plan.

Let me close by again saying, thank you—your hard work and dedication is connecting people to health care in your community. We value your commitment to the Marketplace and to your clients, and we are committed to working with you.

Sincerely,

Randy Pate
